Text Messaging

As part of using our Digital Services, you may participate in one or more texting programs administered by or on behalf of Company or its affiliates. By participating in such programs, you are agreeing to receive recurring autodialed marketing messages at the mobile number that you have provided at opt-in. Your consent to participate in any such program is not a condition of any purchase. Your mobile carrier's message and data rates may apply depending on the terms and conditions of your mobile phone contract, and you are solely responsible for all message and data charges that you incur. In all programs, you may text STOP to stop messaging for that program and HELP for help. If you no longer want to receive text messages from us, the sole and exclusive remedy is to end enrollment in the specific texting program by texting STOP. After texting STOP you will receive one additional message confirming that your request has been processed.

In the event that you change or deactivate your mobile number it is your responsibility to notify us by sending an email to privacy@lakings.com. We are not liable for any communication or transmission of information by text which happens because you did not report that your mobile number changed.

We reserve the right to alter message frequency at any time, i.e. we may change the frequency of texts that you receive under any program. We will notify you via text if we change the frequency and provide you with the opportunity to opt out. We also may discontinue any of our text messaging programs without notice or liability to you and reserve the right to cease delivery of text messages to any person at any time in our sole discretion.

Our text messaging programs are offered on an "as is" basis and may not be available via all carriers. We do not guarantee the successful delivery of text messages by your wireless provider. Messages sent by text may not be delivered if the mobile device is not in range of a transmission site, or if sufficient network capacity is not available at a particular time. Even within a coverage area, factors beyond the control of wireless carriers may interfere with message delivery, including the terrain, proximity to buildings, foliage, weather, and the recipient's equipment. We will not be liable for any losses or damages arising from (a) our text messaging programs, (b) non-delivery, delayed delivery, or misdirected delivery of a text message; (c) inaccurate or incomplete content in a text message; or (d) use or reliance on the content of any text message for any purpose. The wireless carriers are not liable for any delayed or undelivered text messages.

All information collected in connection with our text messaging programs is governed by our Privacy Policy.
